

Community Clinic Grant 2019

The purpose of the Community Clinic Grant is to assist clubs in offering clinics that will increase awareness and/or participation in horse sport in Saskatchewan. Such clinics must be open to interested youth, disabled persons and all persons in the community, and will provide an opportunity for persons to learn to ride/drive; to improve their skills or to learn about the many aspects of horsemanship. Must be a current Club Member of the SHF and the club must be a registered not-for-profit. Special consideration will be given to clubs that may have teams competing at a regional or national level and wish to host a training clinic in preparation for these competitions.
