SHF Recorded General Performance Judge

The Recorded General Performance Judge is in training to become an official and is not eligible to judge independently. To apply to become a Primary judge, a Recorded Official must complete the following steps.

Step 1 Complete an SHF General Performance judge's application form.

Step 2 Order or download a Current Heritage/Prairie Cup Handbook. It is recommended that you also have a current EC General Performance Rule book.

Step 3 Attend a SHF provincial or EC General Performance judge's clinic.

Step 4 Applicants for Recorded status are required to pass the General Performance Judge written exam with a minimum of 80%. This exam will be provided/administered after attending a General Performance Judges clinic

Step 5 Applicants must meet minimum shadow judging requirements. Recorded Status applicants are required to shadow judge with a SHF Senior General Performance Judge or an EC Recorded Judge (or above) at a minimum of 3 General Performance Shows. Shadowing must be completed under THREE different judges. For shadow judge procedure information or to obtain a shadow judging form, contact the SHF office.

It is suggested that applicants complete the Respect in Sport module found here <https://sasksrc.respectgroupinc.com/>

Once the requirements of 1-5 are completed, application can be made to the SHF Officials Committee for advancement to Primary General Performance Judge Status, allowing eligibility to judge independently

SHF Primary General Performance Judge

The Primary General Performance Judge is qualified to judge Provincial Heritage Shows and non-sanctioned competitions.

To maintain current judge's status, judges are required to:

- Maintain an individual membership with the SHF;
- Attend a SHF or EC General Performance judge's clinic at least once every three years;
- Write the rule book exam once every three years, passing with a score of 80%;
- Judge 7 Heritage Circuit General Performance competitions in a three-year consecutive period
- Complete the Respect in Sport module found here <https://sasksrc.respectgroupinc.com/>
- Keep records of all activities related to maintaining and/or advancing their officials status, and to share with the SHF office.
- The SHF Officials Committee may require a Primary official to complete additional shadow judging, or additional experience is recommended if there is a concern

Once the above requirements are met, application can be made to the SHF Officials Committee for advancement to Provincial Senior General Performance Judge Status.

SHF Senior General Performance Judge

The Senior General Performance Judge is qualified to judge Provincial level General Performance Shows including Heritage sanctioned competitions. Senior judges are also eligible to mentor (shadow) recorded and primary status officials.

To maintain current judge's status, judges are required to:

- Maintain an individual membership with the SHF;
- Attend a SHF or EC General Performance judge's clinic at least once every three years;
- Write the rule book exam once every three years, passing with a score of 80%;
- Complete the Respect in Sport module found here <https://sasksrc.respectgroupinc.com/>
- Keep records of all activities related to maintaining and/or advancing their officials status, and to share with the SHF office.
