About the Clinician:

For over 40 years Elaine has made her life study and passion the art of dressage riding and teaching. Elaine began riding at the age of seven, competing at the age of ten, teaching and training for clients by the age of fifteen and making a living with horses at age eighteen.

Elaine has worked with all disciplines of horses and riders with a variety of temperaments and skills. Throughout England, France, Canada and the US, she has found that all horses and riders can benefit from dressage training.
